About Our Speaker:

David S. Rosen, Esquire, CPA

David S. Rosen is RS&F's Director of Tax Services at RS&F, Chartered. He has more than ten years of experience advising complex businesses, real estate developers and high net worth individuals with respect to tax planning, tax compliance and transaction structuring. As Director of Tax Services, David oversees all aspects of the Firm's tax department. On behalf of clients, he leverages his unique skill set as a tax attorney and CPA to provide tax structuring and tax compliance advice for businesses and high net worth families. Moreover, David leads the strategic tax planning for many of RS&F largest and most complex clients. David frequently lectures and writes with regard to business and estate tax issues and planning opportunities.

Prior to joining RS&F, David practiced law for seven years, including serving in the Tax and Wealth Planning Group at Venable LLP where he represented high net worth families and closely held companies, together with their related entities and trust in connection with business and transaction structuring, estate planning and personal income tax planning. During his career, David has advised clients on hundreds of transactions, tax positions, tax planning matters, tax compliance issues and related tax matters on behalf of individuals, trusts, operating companies and real estate entities.

David earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Maryland – College Park in 2001 and his law degree from Emory University School of Law in 2004. He is licensed to practice law in Maryland, New York and before the United States Tax Court. David is also a licensed CPA in Maryland and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants.
